Apocalypse Now: The Lion Roars Series
“Christ Among the Lampstands”
Revelation 1:9-20

The church is facing danger; but the good news is that Jesus has done something about the dangers facing our church – he wrote us a letter. But this letter is unusual in that it is written in the style of apocalyptic literature, which reveals both present and future events of judgment and salvation in vivid and memorable visions, dreams, images, and symbols.

What the church needed is a vision of the One who is for us: Jesus Christ. And John give us this vision in the opening chapter of the book of Revelation. In this opening chapter, we experience a vision of the Christ among the lampstands.
