Apocalypse Now: The Lion Roars
"Philadelphia: An Open Door"
Revelation 3:7-13
Wayne Shelton

Revelation 3:7-13 (focal, v8: 'See, I have placed before you an open door'.)

Jesus reveals himself to the beloved of Philadelphia as the Lord of opportunity. He has the 'key of David', which controls the opening and closing of all doors (3:7). In this church, we find a thrilling example of strength in weakness. This small, seemingly insignificant body of believers is called to go through a great door of opportunity into a life of substantive impact. Will we trust the Lord to walk through the open door of opportunity in our day?
