Apocalypse Now: The Lion Roars
“The Final Harvest”
Revelation 14:14-15:4
Wayne Shelton

What had been a warning in 14:6-13 is now described as a present reality. John is describing the vision he had of final redemption, and in this vision, everything is fulfilled. This is the fulfillment of the ultimate exodus, the fulfillment of God’s provision for his people, the fulfillment of everything Jesus and the prophets had to say about the harvest of the earth. This final judgment, which will be the culmination of world history and the consummation of God’s Kingdom, has been announced repeatedly in earlier visions. But here it is described for us in increasingly graphic detail.
