Transforming Grace
“Grace’s Sanctifying Power”
Titus 2:11-12
Wayne Shelton

Wouldn’t you love to know how to say no to sin instead of yes? According to Scripture, there is something that teaches us to say no to sin – something that trains us to renounce ungodliness and teaches us instead to live righteous and godly lives. While the Lord uses various means in the process of our struggle against sin, the Bible says that there is something that has the power to teach us to say no to sin, what is it? Titus chapter two verses 11 and 12 tell us it is grace, only grace, that has that power.
