

Sunday, February 10, 2019
Transforming Grace
“Grace’s Perpetual Abundance”
2 Corinthians 9:8
Wayne Shelton

In 2 Corinthians 9:8, the Apostle Paul gives us the secret of the divine economy: the supply of God’s grace is unlimited. Join us this week as we learn that the more we give away for Jesus, the more God gives us everything we need. It is only when we give more than we think we can spare that we find out how generous God really is. Without exception, people who know to give for the glory of God are people who have experienced the extraordinary generosity of his grace. Have you?

Redeemer
Presbyterian