Transforming Grace
"Grace's Precious Testimony"
Acts 20:24
Wayne Shelton

The unlimited abundance of God's costly grace calls us to a life of generous sacrifice. In particular, the grace of God in Jesus Christ compels us to give away the gospel to as many people as we can. Indeed, sharing the grace of God ought to be more precious to us than life itself. We know this from the example of the apostle Paul, who said in his farewell address to the elders of the church in Ephesus, "I do not account my life of any value nor as precious to myself, if only I may finish my course and the ministry that I received from the Lord Jesus, to testify to the gospel of the grace of God" (Acts 20:24).
